YOUNG LADY LOSES SUIT FOR DAMAGES

Judge Waddill Instructs Jury to Find for Old Dominion Steamship Company.

The case of Miss Nannie Morgan vs. the Old Dominion Steamship Company, a suit for $10,000 damages for injuries, alleged to have been sustained by the young lady while traveling as a passenger of the defendant company, came to an unexpected close yesterday in the United States Circuit Court, Judge Waddill instructing the jury to find for the defendant company.

The counsel for the defendant had offered a motion to so instruct the jury at Thursday's session, and it was argued at length by counsel, pro and con. Yesterday morning Judge Waddill ruled on the motion, allowing it. This action of the court was based upon the ground that the evidence had established the fact that Miss Morgan's injuries were due to an act of God and not to the negligence of the defendant, nor even to the dual cause. Miss Morgan was injured by being thrown from her berth on the steamer Princess Anne during a violent storm at sea, and by water washing in or leaking into her state-room.

This termination of the case permits of an appeal, but it is not known yet whether the case will be taken to the higher court.

Judge Mann to Speak Here.

State Senator William H. Mann, one of the candidates in the triangular gubernatorial race, will make his initial Richmond campaign address at Corean Hall on next Tuesday night. Judge Mann has some staunch supporters in Richmond and those who are not favorable to his candidacy concede his earnest ability and pure patriotism. There will doubtless be a crowded house, as many desire to hear from the Judge himself a deliverance on disputed questions.

Appointed Gaugers.

Mr. Thomas R. Glazebrook and Mr. George Duncan were yesterday appointed storekeepers and gaugers by the United States Internal Revenue Service. These positions do not require all the time of the appointees, and only pay during the fruit brandy season and when the gaugers are actively employed. Mr. Glazebrook was recently a deputy United States marshal by appointment of ex-Marshal Stuart, but retired upon the reappointment of Mr. Treat. He has made an excellent official, and his friends are hopeful that something better is in store for him.

MASONIC HOME SCHOOL CLOSES

Interesting Exercises in the Presence of the Board.

MANY MEDALS ARE AWARDED

Bright Youths and Maidens Contest for High Honors.

The regular monthly meeting of the board of governors of the Masonic Home was held at the Home on June 8th, this being the day set apart for the closing exercises of the Home school. The following members of the board were present: J. S. Moore, A. R. Courtney, Julius Strauss, W. D. Poole, T. H. Ellett, Hugh R. Smith, John W. Richardson, John F. Mayer, Charles H. Nesbitt and George C. Jefferson. The board met at 12:30, received reports of the various committees and transacted other routine business of importance to the Home.

At 2:30 o'clock the board of governors, the children of the Home and friends assembled in the chapel, where exercises were opened with prayer by Rev. Dr. W. A. Cooper.

Following the opening song by the entire school came the awarding of medals as follows: Scholarship, Lester L. Tibbels, Va. Lodge, No. 177, Surrey county, presented by John F. Mayer; scholarship, Hazel P. Morse, Pleasant Lodge, No. 63, Roanoke, presented by Hugh R. Smith; deportment, Sallie Gertrude Smoot, Arlington Lodge, No. 102, Essex county, presented by T. H. Ellett; deportment, Claude Parcells Anderson Lodge, No. 238, Amherst county, presented by John W. Richardson. These medals were furnished through the William B. Isaacs Memorial Fund, General department, "Loomer" medal, given by Henry Hutzler, was won by Charles A. Saunders, King William Lodge, No. 225, Hanover county, and was presented by Julius Strauss.

A Close Contest.

Next came a contest in recitation, by Miss Mildred Black, Marshall Lodge, No. 30, Lynchburg; Clarence Hill, Elkton Lodge, No. 74, Elkton, Va.; Allen McCabe, Henrico Lodge, No. 138, Richmond, and Frances Baylor, Blandford Lodge, No. 2, Petersburg, and so on, till each recited that the committee, composed of Dr. W. A. Cooper, Major B. F. Howard and Mr. Quarles, had some difficulty in settling on the winner.

Allen McCabe was, however, finally awarded the medal, a beautiful gold one, which was donated by T. H. Ellett, and it was presented by Rev. Dr. W. A. Cooper.

Robert H. Moore, Wytheville Fraternal Lodge, No. 82, Wythe county, won the medal donated by Mrs. Barbour, superintendent of the Home, for obedience, and J. S. Moore, president of the Home board, presented it.

Elder P. Reynolds, Harmon Lodge, No. 222, Tazewell county, won the medal given by Mrs. Barbour for punctuality, and it was presented by J. Thompson Brown, the pastor of the church. Mr. Brown, a Murry president, offered a medal for kindness, and this was won by Adeline C. Tapp, Portsmouth Naval Lodge, No. 30, Norfolk county, and was presented by Major A. R. Courtney.

Mr. T. H. Ellett, member of the board of governors, will in the future donate a medal to the best scholar at the Home school, and J. S. Moore, president of the Home board, will offer a medal for the best recitation, with only girls in the contest.

The medal given this year by Rev. Mr. Eggleston and for which both girls and boys contend will next year be contested for only by boys, Mr. Moore, as above stated, having provided one for girls.

A Pleading Incident.

A pleasing and meritorious incident of the occasion was the presentation of a beautiful gold pin to Miss Edna Barbour by J. S. Moore, on behalf of the Ladies' Auxiliary Association of the Home, as a token of their appreciation of her services, rendered gratuitously, in the training of the children of the Home.

An examination of the grade sheet, kept by Prof. Nelson, who has had charge of the Home school during the session just closed, shows that the children have done good work.

It was gratifying to the board of governors to see so many of the friends of the Home present, thus encouraging the great work the Masons of Virginia are doing, and they hope at the end of another scholastic year to give, if possible, a more interesting programme, and have a larger attendance of friends and Masons.

Colonel John W. Richardson, representing the great Southwest section of the State on the board of governors, is proud that the boys and girls from this section at the Home are taking medals, and is delighted that they are still at it, having taken three this year, as will be observed in the foregoing report.

Then Mr. Treat's duties will be continued, and in that event he will be commissioned for the full term of four years.

Mr. Capers in the Race.

Mr. James H. Capers, Jr., has announced himself a candidate for the City Democratic Committee from Lee Ward, subject to the Democratic primary.

SPECULATION AS TO THE PRIMARY

Politicians Are Guessing When Candidates Will Be Nominated.

COMMITTEE NEXT WEEK

Thursday Evening Fixed for State Executive Body to Decide Matter.

Some quiet speculation is now being indulged among local politicians or supporters of the various candidates for State offices and United States Senate as to the probable date of the primary. The Democratic State Central Committee will meet at Murphy's Hotel next Thursday evening to fix the date for the primary, assess the candidates for the expense of conducting the election and arrange for all the other details.

Under the limitations of the primary plan, the primary cannot be held earlier than August 9th (ninety days before the general election), nor later than September 12th, sixty days before the regular election. In those years in which only one senator is nominated (in 1911, for instance), the primary, according to the plan, must be held on the first Thursday in September.

Under the terms of the plan, August 9th, Wednesday, is the earliest possible date on which the primary can be held. September 8th is the latest date on which it may be held. If it were held on the earliest date, there would be left just two months in which the candidates may present their claims. The campaign was opened early, and has been a great strain on the physical and mental powers of the campaigners. Sixty days will probably be about as much more of this strenuous life as they will wish. Already dates are being suggested, and the earliest practicable date seems to be preferred. Some have suggested Saturday, August 12th, but this is still to be an inconvenient date for the cities. Thursday, August 10th, has been suggested by some. Thursday, the 21st; Tuesday, the 23d, or Tuesday, the 29th, are also possible dates.

If the rural members of the State Committee prefer a Saturday and an early date, Saturday, August 12th, will probably be selected. The date question is likely to consume more time than anything else.

How They Will Contribute

In fixing the primary fee to be assessed for payment of the expenses of the election, it will be necessary to ascertain approximately what it will cost to hold the primary. Then the sum will be made up, in all probability, by an assessment representing an agreed percentage of the entire salary of the office for the whole term or for one year. Naturally those receiving the largest salaries will be called upon to bear a heavier burden than those whose offices are not lucrative. In the same way, those seeking a six year tenure will be called upon to pay more than those who hold office for but four years.

It is not definitely announced whether those candidates for State elective offices, who have no opposition, will be called upon to pay part of the expense of the primary. Notice of candidacy must be given in writing at least thirty days before the date of the primary by the senatorial candidates and the aspirants for the State elective offices. It will not be positively known until thirty days prior to the primary, therefore, whether or not any candidate has opposition. All may develop opposition before then, or contingencies may arise which will eliminate some candidate from the field before that time.

The committee, when it meets next Thursday, cannot assume that any candidate will be unopposed until the time of announcing candidacy expires by limitation. It would seem, therefore, that the committee would have to conditionally assess those candidates who are now unopposed. In the event any candidate is unopposed, it is questionable whether or not he is liable to assessment. The assessment is to pay the expenses of the primary, if he is not a candidate in the primary, he would not be liable to assessment, unless the committee shall rule otherwise.

Are Transferring Bonds.

The State Treasurer and Second Auditor are now engaged in transferring bonds before June 30th, when the semi-annual interest payment on bonds is payable. Probable transfers are being made in payment of interest which on the outstanding securities of the State aggregates
